(8 Worksheets) When children study grammar, one of the most basic lessons they learn involves the parts of speech. The term refers to the category to which words are assigned based on how they function in a sentence. Knowing and understanding the parts of speech help children avoid grammar errors and write more effectively. English grammar is composed of eight basic parts of speech: Nouns: Name a person, place, thing, or idea. Some examples are "dog," "cat," "table," "playground," and "freedom." Pronouns: Take the place of a noun. You might use "she" in place of "girl" or "he" instead of "Billy." Verbs: Show action or a state of being. Verbs include the words "run," "look," "sit," "am," and "is." Adjectives: Describe or modify a noun or a pronoun. Adjectives give details such as color, size, or shape. Adverbs: Describe or modify a verb, adjective, or another adverb. These words often end in "-ly," such as "quickly," "quietly," and "softly." Prepositions: Begin phrases called prepositional phrases that describe the relationship between other words in the sentence. Words such as "by," "to," and "between" are prepositions. Examples of their use in a sentence include: "The girl sat by the lake." "The boy stood between his parents." Conjunctions: Join two words or clauses. The most common conjunctions are "and," "but," and "or." Interjections: Show strong feeling. They're often followed by an exclamation point, such as "Oh!" or "Hey!" Try some fun activities with your children to help them learn to identify each part of speech. One activity could be using a different colored pencil for each part of speech and underlining them in old magazines or newspapers. Print out these parts of speech worksheets for your children to complete: Beverly Hernandez Spend some time discussing parts of speech with your students or children.
